1	We all have great ideas of what's most effective in CE; we can also share instructors and class info.	May 19, 2011 2:01 PM
2	Want to learn about and see the best!	May 19, 2011 10:52 AM
3	Sharing best practices and what doesn't work is very helpful. It's also wonderful to meet other people in the same profession.	May 19, 2011 6:08 AM
4	Share ideas, collaborate, share informational topics	May 18, 2011 7:14 PM
5	Because there is strength in numbers and we need to help each other in getting the word out about community ed and sharing how important community ed can be to schools and communities in creating social capital. Thru networking we can share unique ideas about programs, learn, and benefit from each other, as well.	May 18, 2011 5:00 PM
6	Ideas and feedback.	May 13, 2011 10:26 AM
7	share ideas, learn, partner on programs	May 13, 2011 9:47 AM
8	You always gain knowledge by networking and it also leads to collaborative efforts. Also, can provide a new way of looking at a problem or a program. It also provides moral support.	May 13, 2011 8:33 AM
9	To use as sounding board or get ideas on what others are doing.	May 13, 2011 7:49 AM
10	Time is such a problem - not enough time in the day/week/year to make much time, especially since the travel - even for regional meetings - can mean a meeting takes a whole day.	May 13, 2011 7:12 AM
11	It is the best way to connect with people who share in the same kind of job issues, etc. And it is a great way to get new ideas on how to deal with issues, implement new programs, etc.	May 13, 2011 6:31 AM
12	Funding is in such short supply that we cannot afford to learn by making mistakes. I need to take calculated risks to develop our program.	May 12, 2011 10:37 PM
13	It is good to see what is working for other Comm Ed programs to get new ideas.	May 12, 2011 3:10 PM
14	All of us is smarter than one of us!	May 11, 2011 2:52 PM
15	It's so helpful to talk with others who "get " what I do--it can feel isolating otherwise!	May 10, 2011 1:50 PM
16	Networking is important because it gives you the opportunity to learn about what others are doing in the field.	May 10, 2011 1:39 PM

Page 2, Q8. Besides time at our annual conference, how could we help you with networking?

1	This is a great start! :)	May 19, 2011 2:01 PM
2	Regional or CESA workshops would be great.	May 19, 2011 10:52 AM
3	create a way to communicate via email, blogs, etc.	May 18, 2011 7:14 PM
4	Maybe have an active listserv -- or use the website -- maybe a blog or something.	May 18, 2011 5:00 PM
5	offering half day gatherings to just get together with members in our area over a working lunch	May 18, 2011 12:37 PM
6	We network at our regional meetings, but time is an issue. I am sure our website could be a great tool for sharing/blogging or for contact info. Maybe question of the week that someone puts on there and gets answered? They do this on LERN and it has helped me out many times. Knowing that someone else has the same problem as you do and how they tackled it is very helpful.	May 13, 2011 8:33 AM
7	having updated membership information to make contacts	May 13, 2011 7:49 AM
8	webinars?	May 13, 2011 7:12 AM
9	Regional meetings are good. Keeping the web pages fresh, samples of forms and other publications. Fresh ideas.	May 13, 2011 6:31 AM
10	Tekeconferences on specific topics such as listed above.	May 12, 2011 10:37 PM
11	Smaller regional meetings/conferences too.	May 12, 2011 3:10 PM
12	A southern Region chair who hosts meetings would be nice!	May 10, 2011 1:50 PM
13	With connecting us with individuals who are willing to share information in the area requested on this survey.	May 10, 2011 1:39 PM
